FBA ELECTIONS SET FOR JUNE 27 MEETING; BROWN, ABBOTT, BECKER, DAVIS NOMINEES

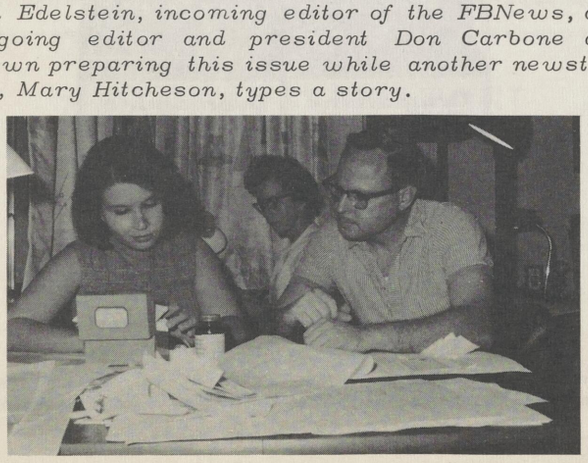

Alling Brown, 821 25th St., has been nominated to succeed Donald J. Carbone as President of the Foggy Bottom Association. Chairman of the District Affairs Committee this year, Alling heads the slate of 1966-67 officers and other Executive Board members to be presented for election next Monday evening, June 27, at the final FBA meeting of the season.

The Reverend F. Everett Abbott, 2508 Eye St., Associate Rector of St. Mary's Episcopal Church; Eleanor (Ellie) Becker, 940 25th St., and Mrs. Nathaniel (Liz) Davis, 2413 H St., have been nominated as, respectively, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer; the offices are currently held by Morella Hansen, Margaret Hays, and the Reverend Charles E. Miller, Rector of St. Mary's. A past Treasurer of the Association, Liz Davis has just returned to Foggy Bottom from Bulgaria, where her husband Nat was U.S. Minister until his appointment to the staff of the National Security Council here.

Renominated for the Executive Board are its three present members, William L. Simon, 2407-1/2 Eye St., Harriet Gruger, 2530 Eye St., and Alex Wiskup, 822 25th St.

All members are urged to attend the meeting Monday evening, at which time nominations from the floor will be accepted. The list of members eligible to vote appears elsewhere in this issue.

Jan Edelstein, incoming editor of the FBNews, and outgoing editor and president Don Carbone are shown preparing this issue while another newstaffer, Mary Hitcheson, types a story.

FOGGY BOTTOM HOUSE & GARDEN TOUR A TREMENDOUS SUCCESS! 338 TAKE PART

By Pat Timberman

Foggy Bottom residents, who are accustomed to Sunday afternoon quiet and inactivity, were pleasantly surprised on June 5 when, despite one of the warmest Sundays of the year, 338 visitors took part in the First Annual Foggy Bottom House and Garden Tour. All around the area small groups of people were going in and out of the houses that were opened for viewing.

The houses so graciously displayed greatly interested many newcomers to the Foggy Bottom area as well as others from all over the District and nearby Maryland and Virginia.

Proceeds from the admission tickets (which were on sale at each of the tour houses) are to be given to the Metropolitan Police Boys Club. A representative of the 3rd Precinct will be on hand at the June 27 meeting to receive the donation made possible by the people who helped make this first tour such a huge success.

"Oohs" and "aahs" could be heard from the visitors as they trekked from house to house, in small groups or alone, carefully inspecting some of the fine furnishings and interesting decorations in each home. The hosts and hostesses were most informative in answering the questions put to them many times over--the age of the house, when it was restored and many other questions.

Politeness was the keynote of the afternoon, as groups waited patiently to ascend or descend narrow, winding staircases. Small kitchen areas were carefully inspected by the lady visitors, who unfailingly remarked favorably on the efficient use of the space allotted.

Most of the houses are furnished with the finest of period furniture and antiques, suitable to the century in which the houses were built. However, since many of the hosts had spent years abroad, there were outstanding souvenirs of far places.

VIEWS FROM THE COPY DESK

Next year's Foggy Bottom News staff will be not only larger but much better looking. With the current editor's wedding plans and all, this issue might not have made it without the help of several young ladies.

The same distaff team will hopefully be editing the News when it resumes publication in the fall or late summer. Jan Edelstein has volunteered to serve as editor. She will be assisted by Mary Aitcheson, Charlotte Breckenridge, Pat Timberman -- all of whom contributed to this issue--and a few others who have promised to help in the future.

To them, to all who have contributed to the News and to everyone who has helped to make my term as FBA president a rewarding one for me and hopefully a progressive one for our community, my heartfelt thanks and best wishes.

POLICE FORCE NEEDS SUPPORT OF ALL

Have you ever thought what kind of society we would have without a police force? Who would answer the emergency calls in the middle of the night when you hear prowlers or a stranger at your door? Who would check on robberies, recover stolen property, not to mention answering calls about innumerable parking violations, license violations, disturbances of the peace, and on and on?

It is about time that we made up our mind whether we are for or against the police. For my part, I am 100% for them. Based on my personal experience and observations of officers such as Officers Cherry, O'Donnell, Thrift and others, I think we have a fine group at Precinct 3 under Capt. Bishop.

Maybe if we stopped moaning and groaning about the rising crime rate and instead supported a campaign by the FBA and other civic groups to (1) increase police salaries (would you risk your life for $6010 per year?), (2) increase police department appropriations for more officers and scout cars, (3) report suspicious persons and occurrences and (4) be willing to testify when necessary to help convict criminals caught and prosecuted--then maybe the crime rate would finally come down or at least stop rising. Isn't it worth a try?

PERSONALITIES

Esther Dobbs of Llane Jewelers and Gift Shop is looking hail and hearty again after surgery and several weeks of convalescence at home. She has expressed her thanks to customers and friends for their cards and good wishes. Mrs. Dobbs has long been a Foggy Bottomite; her father ran a grocery store at 22nd and Eye Sts. for some 20 years. At present her brother, Frank Rosenfeld, operates Plaza Market, her brother-in-law, Lester Dobbs, is at Federal Super Market and a cousin manages G W Liquors. Mrs. Dobbs and her husband, Stanley, operated a business in the old Mills Building on G Street until it was torn down.

Kansas State Commencement Week recently featured a Charley Rogers Journalism Alumni Reunion in Manhattan, Kansas. Charley was head of the Journalism Department there as well as a professor for many years after an active career as reporter and reviewer for the Tulsa World and Kansas City Star. Dr. Rogers, as he is seldom called, has also been Journalism Department head at Iowa State and has worked for the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Charley and his wife, Rosemary, will soon be leaving their row house at 917 Hughes Mews for a new town house in Southwest's Harbour Square.

FOGGY BOTTOM AS IT USED TO BE

Paintings by Frank Nebel

This reporter had the opportunity of meeting Mr. Frank Nebel, whose paintings were recently on display in Tobey Jewelers on Pennsylvania Avenue. At first glance, these paintings appear to be far removed from Foggy Bottom as we know it. Mr. Nebel himself refers to scenes such as those displayed as something that no longer exists, as if an atom bomb had been dropped, making the whole area disappear completely. But actually, small traces of that Foggy Bottom can still be seen. If you don't believe it, just take a walk down along F St. between 21st and 25th, and look for yourself. Those who went on the house and garden tour recently can vouch for that.

When asked why he did this series of paintings to begin with, Mr. Nebel said that he wanted to not only tell a story graphically but also to show how the area appeared to him as he grew up.
